LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

-Yesterday was another hot day. -The picnic season is about ended. -The board of education meets tonight. -The Southern express company has our thanks for latest New York dates. -A case of witchcraft is reported in Scotland, and it is said that legal prosecution will be instituted against the practitioners of the mystic art. -The privileges for the Masonic picnic will be sold at auction in A. J. Wheeler's office, No. 9 Magnolia block, corner of Main and Front streets, at four o'clock to-morrow afternoon. -The Spiritual Magazine for July is replete with interesting contents. "The Power of Spirits to Aid or Injure," is one of the most novel and attractive subjects treated in the number. -Our merchants will not forget that their home packet, the steamer Illinois. is the boat leaving Friday evening at five o'clock, for Vicksburg and the bends. It will be to their advantage to give her all their business. -We have received an invitation to a moonlight fete champetre to be given at Alexander's park to-morrow night, for the benefit of the Church Orphans' home. The occasion will be one of much pleasure to all who attend.

-About half-past twelve o'clock this morning Officer Carmichael met a negro on Auction street, near Front, with a ed-quilt full of fine linen garments. The negro, who gave his name as George Johnson, was arrested on suspicion of larceny.

-We have received a sample of silk made by T. W. Theobald, of Nashville, Tennessee. The sample was grown from Italian silkworm, fed on the leaves of the osage and lettuce. It is a bright orange color, and equal in texture to any that other countries produce.

-In the first circuit court yesterday an alternative mandamus was usued in the case of the State of Tennessee, ex rel., Charles Abernathy, of New York, vs. the sinking fund commissioners of Memphis, to enforce the payment of a past-due bond and coupons, issued un-der Mayor Taylor's administration in the year 1852.

Street, who was struck on the boad by wood cemetery last week, died Tuesday night from the effects of the injuries. Deputy-Coroner Spelman yesterday held an inquest upon the body, and a verdict was returned in accordance with the facts already published.

-Mr. Carl Schlich is endeavoring to secure sufficient subscription for the em-ployment of fifteen private watchmen to guard the property all night in the area of territory embraced from Poplar street to Beale, and from Front to Third street. We learn that quite a number of merchants have subscribed toward the rpose, which will doubtless be effected by Mr. Schlich, who was an excellent member of the police force a year ago.

-A letter received from W. J. Simer, of Omega, Marion county, Illinois, states that a boy named Frankie Tyne is living with him, and is anxious to learn if his parents are alive. His parents removed from Canada to Chicago, where they left the boy at school and came to Memphis. The boy started to walk to this city in July, 1873, but failed to complete his journey. He is therefore anxious to hear from his parents, who are supposed to be in this city.

-The fete champetre to be given at Alexander park to-morrow night, for the benefit of the Church orphans' home, will be one of the most brilliant and recherche entertainments that our people have ever enjoyed. A large num-ber of invitations have been issued, and persons who were in thelhurry of the momanent situation in a first-class house, at a iberal salary, if references as to character and qualifications are satisfactory. Address hotel. Tickets can be had of Hollenberg, G. W. Jones & Co., Ed. Cleaves, Mansfield & Co., and Boyle & Chap-man. The ladies will have charge of the entertainment, and furnish refreshments at a very reasonable cost. The ladies intend making the occasion unusually attractive, and it will be made all the more interesting because of their attentions. Dancing will be a prominent feature of the evening. -The great express-robber case, which has been on trial for the past ten days, was concluded yesterday. At two o'clock in the evening the jury returned their verdict into court, through their foreman, Dr. Wright. Mat Morris and Edward H. Johnson got twenty-one years, Henry Johnson (the negro) twenty years, and John Woods ten the improvement committee passed hist reading; also, an ordinance regulating the same by the light and lamp committee. years. HOARD OF ALDERMEN. Board met pursuant to adjournment, President Robbins presiding, and present Aldermen Dwyer, Mstealf, Happek, Hillsman, White, Malatesta, Morti. A communication from the city attorney was read concerning the mandamus cases against the city. It emoodied a detailed history of the past, an elaborate chronicle of the present, some pretty fair predictions of the future, with suggestions as to what will result in disaster and what in the city's prosperity. The length of the document excludes it from this report. It was regarded as a most remarkable document—some styled it a ecture to the mayor, general council, finance committee, etc.-and necessary to be referred to a joint committee of by whom the city was placed in such
